

Developer PHP – OpenLDAP

FusionDirectory

Description

FusionDirectory is looking to recruit new developers to work on its flagship product, FusionDirectory.

Type de poste

CDD

FusionDirectory is opensource identity management software (IAM)

Date de début du poste

as soon as possible

FusionDirectory is leading the way in higher education research in the field of Identity management by supporting the various norms and applications like SupAnn, PARTAGE by RENATER, Sinaps by AMUE

Lieu du poste

Télétravail possible

responsibilities

You will be responsible for working with the current development team to:

- Respond to the bugs submitted by customers under maintenance contracts
- Develop new functionalities within the framework of client projects
- Help improve the software
- Understand the complex business processes of higher education research in order to implement solutions based on FusionDirectory

Horaires

9h00 / 17h00 CET (can be negotiated if not in CET time)

Date de publication

19 février 2020

Expérience

We are looking for PHP developers who have experience in the world of free software and who are aware of its philosophy.

We attach great importance to:

- Autonomy
- The experience of using free software
- Participation in free software projects
- Daily use of a Linux workstation
- Openness to discussion and proposal of solutions

Compétences

- Develop in Object Oriented PHP from PHP 5.6 to PHP 7.X
- Knowledge of LDAP directories
- Mastery of Git, Gitlab
- Knowledge of test frameworks such as phpunit, selenium, facebook webdriver

Avantages du poste

- 13 months
- Public transport or bicycle costs
- Portable and GSM provided by the company
- Meal vouchers
- Ecochèques
- Mission expenses if necessary while traveling